Season Highlight:

Greater Nanticoke Area record: 22-1(Wyoming Valley Conference div.1 champs 2 years in a row, district 2 aa champs)

The Trojanettes have won 2 district titles in the last three years. Led by junior pitcher Sarah Bertoni (15-1, era.72) with a team high .418 batting average, the team proved hard to score on, giving up only 15 runs thru the league and district playoffs, while scoring 122 runs. During the entire season, every part of the line up contributed both defensively and offensively. Our three senior starters, Jenn Harnischfeger, Amanda Cardone, and Katie Brown provided leadership and were among league leaders in offensive and defensive stats.

To top off the regular season six players were named to the all conference team(Sarah Bertoni, Amanda Cardone, Jenn Harnischfeger, Sammy Gow, Maggie Gola, and Ange Hillan) while three others were honorable mention(Lindsay Roberts, Katie Brown, and Hannah Rubasky)

After two close games in the district playoffs (Carbondale 3-0, Northwest 2-1), Sarah Bertoni threw a no hit-ter(lost a perfect game on a last inning walk) against previously unbeaten Elk Lake 3-0 to win the district title.
